

Looking for Holiday Gift Ideas?

How about a giving someone a limited edition print of "Grand Finale at Lake Ellyn?"

Commissioned by the Make a Memory Foundation, this original watercolor by Gordon France is the first in a series entitled "Seasons of Glen Ellyn."

Limited to only 200, proceeds from the sales will support the park district's Safety Village. Each print is numbered, titled and signed. Printed with archival inks on Arches watercolor paper or Somerset Velvet, the image size is 10"x13" in a 16"x20" white double mat. The price is $75.00.

About the Artist

A graduate of The School of The Art Institute of Chicago, France has had successful one-man gallery exhibits and art shows in the Midwest and east coast. His watercolors have won several show and gallery merit awards and ribbons including Best Of Show and First Prize. Commissions include a Street Art Series painting for the introduction of the Chevrolet SSR. He frequently does painting demonstrations and critiques for art organizations and schools and has been a featured artist on WGN-TV, WMAQ-TV, in the Chicago Tribune and area suburban newspapers.
