Minimize your impact on the planet while minimizing your possessions! On January 20, Kay McKeen of SCARCE will cover where to donate, what to recycle, and how to safely dispose of items as you clean out at home. The first Eco-Lecture will be held virtually from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Registration is required at <insert link>. A Zoom link will be sent via email to registered participants. Presentations may be held virtually via Zoom, or in-person. For the in-person sessions, Zoom also will be activated for those wanting to participate virtually. Once registered, you will receive an email with more details and the link option.
