VIII. New Business
A. Website Demonstration
Executive Director Harris stated that the Glen Ellyn Park District website was initiated in 2006 and has had limited improvements and updates within the last 10 years. The creation and implementation of a new Park District website was identified as a goal of the District and an integral component of the customer service program. With the technological advancements and the increased use in mobile devices a system would be needed to improve a patron’s experience and enhancing marketing opportunities for the District.

Marketing and Communications Supervisor O’Kray discussed the developmental process, comparison between the old site and new site and provided a virtual tour of the new site. O’Kray discussed the improvements of the website for the user as well as the benefits to the Park District in order to better serve its patrons. O’Kray pointed out the various tabs of navigating information, ability to easily access information and directions, and the ability to update the site while retaining the annual information for following years. The Park Board praised the efforts of Marketing and Communications Supervisor O’Kray and inquired about the various aspects of the site.

Following the Website Demonstration and regarding New Business, Commissioner Weber discussed inquiries he had received regarding the fencing that has been placed along Fairview Avenue within Newton Park. Executive Director Harris stated that as a result of the informal parking committee that was organized to provide direction and input for a parking plan related to visitors of Newton Park activities, amongst several recommendations, a temporary fence was erected along Fairview Avenue to help condition users that drop off/pick up for Newton Park athletics should not take place along Fairview Avenue and to guide them to the proper locations. The parking committee comprised of residents from the neighborhood, staff, user group representatives and the police identified several other ideas including signage, communication and provisions for higher attended events. Harris stated the fence is not a long term solution but an attempt to redirect and change the habits of the park users. The plan is to install the temporary fence in the spring and again in the fall and hopefully discontinue after that. While the fence may not be aesthetically pleasing it was a consensus within the parking committee group as a means that may be more effective than just signage.

IX. Commissioner Recognitions
Vice President Nephew stated that Staff and the Park Board of Commissioners would like to recognize Melissa Creech, Jay Kinzler and Vanessa Pierce for their service, commitment and efforts as Park District Commissioners.

Commissioner Nephew stated that both Melissa and Jay were first elected in the spring of 2009 and reelected in 2013 while Vanessa was elected in 2013. During their time, they were instrumental in many successful and positive outcomes regarding the financials of the Park District including the creation and participation with the Citizens Finance Committee, achieving an operating budget that generates greater revenue than expenses and the refinancing of existing bonds at a lower rate saving taxpayers money along with many other accomplishments. Nephew discussed some of the many achievements including the creations of advisory committees, preserving and restoring Ackerman Woods, improved athletic fields, attaining a revised and combined I.G. A. with District 87 that mutually benefits the Glen Ellyn community, along with a host of other items that have improved the experience and lives of the Community.

Nephew stated that while achieving and contributing to many significant accomplishments, Melissa, Jay and Vanessa’s dedication and desire to do what was in the best interest of the District was their most lasting achievement. Nephew said each of these Commissioners were contributing citizens within their community and dedicated their time and efforts as volunteers to the District.
